

CHRIST-LIKENESS

“Love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your might’; the second is this, ‘love your neighbor as yourself.”

– Mark 12:30-31

“Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you.”

– Matthew 28:19-20

We believe that He is calling us to become more and more Christ-like, increasingly and more passionately following Him in fulfilling the Great Commandment (Mark 12:30-31) and Great Commission (Matthew 28:19-20). In particular, the grace of God we receive in Christ Jesus must be the defining, visible mark of our life as Christians. All other vision statements arise out of this grace. Thus, in order to receive and give such grace, our focus must continue to be on the experience of devotion to God, always beginning with corporate worship and continuing through the pursuit of deepening prayer, the study of God’s Word, and gathering regularly with God’s people in smaller groups that meet beyond Sunday mornings.
