

MINISTRY & MISSION:

We believe God has called each member of the church to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ to all the world! We are striving to be a church that lives out this message in our everyday lives: in our neighborhoods, schools, and work places, and in many places throughout the world. We don't have volunteers at First Presbyterian- we have servant ministers serving with the gifts God has given us.

